DETAILED ACTION

Claim Objections

1. Claim 11,30,33-35 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Allowable Subject Matter

2. Claims 1-28,36-40 are allowed.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

4. Claims 29,31 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Wyland (USPN 6931466B2). As per claim 29, Wyland discloses receiving a diagnostic instruction from a diagnostic interface in column 3, lines 37-43; communicating an I/O value from the I/O connection to the diagnostic interface when the diagnostic instruction is of a first type in column 4, lines 26-53; receiving an attribute value from a plurality of attribute vales associated with the attribute of the I/O connection from the diagnostic interface when the diagnostic instruction is of a second type and storing the attribute value in a configuration memory, wherein the I/O connection is configured from a first state to a second state in response to the attribute value when the diagnostic instruction is of the second type in column 4, lines 26-53.

5. As per claim 31, Schultz et al. discloses wherein the diagnostic interface comprises a serial data connection in column 3, lines 1-7.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

6. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

7. Claim 32 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Wyland in view of Bocchino (USPN 6208162B1). As per claim 32, Wyland fails to explicitly state wherein the diagnostic interface is a JTAG interface.

Bocchino discloses this limitation in column 2, lines 54-64.

Accordingly, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to have the diagnostic interface be a JTAG interface. A person of ordinary skill in the art would have been motivated to have the diagnostic interface be a JTAG interface because a JTAG interface facilitate in the programming of I/O pins and the reconfiguration of these pins, see column 12, lines 49-53.

Response to Arguments

8. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 29,31,32 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection. New references Wyland and Bocchino have been found to reject these claims.

9. The arguments concerning claims 1-28,36-40 were persuasive; therefore, the rejection of these claims have been withdrawn.

Conclusion

10. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
